

Ancient Well Dating Back To Thirteenth Century Rediscovered In Odisha Forest

15 April 2021

An ancient well which may date back to the twelfth-thirteenth century has been rediscovered in Ambilijhari village inside Dalijoda forest ranges of Cuttack in Odisha. The well, which was a part local folklore for ages, had been totally engulfed in thick vegetation.

According to Anil Dhir of Indian National Trust for Art and Cultural Heritage (INTACH), the well has got unique decorative features, seldom seen in ancient Kalinga temples.
