

Calendar on wildlife conservation released

STAFF REPORTER
COIMBATORE

District Forest Officer of Coimbatore Forest Division D. Venkatesh recently released a desktop calendar brought out by NGO Nature Conservation Society to raise awareness on wildlife conservation.

A press release said that the calendar for 2021 features photographs of elephants and tigers which were captured by wildlife photographer Nidhyan Maniarasu.

The organisation will distribute copies of the calendar at educational institutions and to the public as part of an awareness campaign.

Mr. Venkatesh released the calendar in the presence of N.I. Jalaluddin and J. Anash Ahamed, president and joint secretary of Nature Conservation Society respectively, according to the release.