The last award for the evening was the 'Award for Community Connect' and it went to Millo Tassar, Conservator of Forests in Arunachal Pradesh.

MINISTER SPEAKS

Addressing the august gathering, Union Forest Minister Bhupender Yadav (</topic/union-forest-minister-bhupender-yadav>) said that wildlife conservation is not just a service, it is a passion. "It is not just a service, it is a mission. Each one of you is a karmayogi. This is the Prime Minister's message for you all," he added.

The minister's presidential speech was followed by the vote of thanks from Indian Masterminds (</topic/indian-masterminds>) Editor Sharad Gupta, who underlined the organisation's journey and also elaborated on how the Eco Warrior Awards were conceived and realized.

He briefed the august gathering about the journey of the organisation since its birth during the pandemic in 2020. It was during the pandemic when Sharad Gupta and Prabhakar Singh, the Director of Indian Masterminds (</topic/indian-masterminds>), decided to start (<https://indianmasterminds.com/>) Indian Masterminds (</topic/indian-masterminds>) to profile the bureaucrats and their good work, as a platform to celebrate excellence in Indian Bureaucracy by showcasing their inspiring stories and insights, and honouring the visionaries and changemakers.
